Andrew MacDougall joins the Manor House team as Executive Chef!

Beatrice and Daniel are delighted to welcome local award-winning Executive Chef Andrew MacDougall as the newest team member to the Manor House.

Andrew brings with him many years of experience in creating outstanding menus appreciated by guests and recognised by the hospitality industry. Andrew was awarded 2AA Rosette for his food and most recently, he became a regional winner of the Executive Chef of the Year of the Scottish Hotel Awards 2020.

To provide an exceptional fine dining experience by serving seasonal cuisine bringing out the best of the wonderful local products from sea, shore and mountains is the heart of the philosophy of the new owners of the Manor House, Beatrice and Daniel.

Hence, Andrew's qualifications and passion for food and nature, his drive for excellence and his strong roots in Oban make him the perfect fit for the new chapter of this prestigious and renowned waterfront address located at the south shore of Oban Bay.

The Manor House will re-open as an elegant hotel on the 26th of April. We are looking forward to having your company. Accommodation bookings can be made through our website, restaurant bookings by phone 01631 566 429 (unfortunately, we cannot accept walk-in customers).
