

The Manor House Oban receives a High Recommended status award at the 6th Annual Prestige Hotel Awards.

The Prestige Hotel Awards were created to showcase and reward outstanding service within the hotel industry in Scotland. Voted for by the public, hotels with the most nominations are longlisted as Prestige Hotel Awards' finalists. All hotels are judged by judges who assess the hotel within the categories they received most votes. This year's winners were announced and applauded to by more than 500 guests at the Gala Final in Glasgow.

Daniel Rogger, co-owner of the Manor House, commented: "We are immensely proud to be recognised with a Highly Recommended award in the category 'Best Country House in Scotland' at yesterday's Scottish Prestige Hotel Awards ceremony in Glasgow. We could not have done it without the dedication and hard work of our amazing team!"

The Manor House, a superb Georgian House built in 1780 by the 5th Duke of Argyll, offers spectacular views over Oban Bay and the Isles of Kerrera, Lismore and Mull. The owner run hotel and restaurant combines the manor's understated but elegant appearance, the traditional values of Scottish hospitality and a highly personalised service. The renowned fine dining restaurant is open to non-resident guest 7 days a week.
